baseball, took charge of the annual autumn championship battle in 1905. The victory of the Braves brings about a tie for interleague honors since American League and National clubs, each have won five championship pennants. The American League victories and the clubs that won them follow:

- 1906, Chicago.
- 1910, Philadelphia.
- 1911, Philadelphia.
- 1912, Boston.
- 1913, Philadelphia.
- The National League triumphs were won:

- 1905, New York.
- 1907, Chicago.
- 1908, Chicago.
- 1909, Pittsburgh.
- 1914, Boston.

MACK ALSO STUMBLES

Over fourth championship Connie Mack, the Athletics' leader, is the only manager who has won three world's championships, and he appears to have stumbled over the mystic fourth just as Managers McGraw, Jennings and Chance have failed to win four league pennants in a row.

The final game was the least exciting of the series. There were few brilliant fielding features that are not seen in games during the league season. Maranville made a great stop and throw on a hard hit ball by Collins, and Mann brought cheers on a fine running catch in the outfield.

The batting also was of the ordinary kind. Whitted got two singles. Moran made a double, and Evers, Schmidt and Rudolph each got a base hit. Seven of the ten men in the game for the former world's champions made a hit. Those failing to connect were Murphy, Schang and Pennock. The latter was at bat only once. The hits made by Walsh and Shawkey were two-base drives.

Rudolph struck out seven men, his victims being Oldring, Collins, Walsh, Barry, Shawkey and Schang, the latter twice.

There were but three strikeouts against Boston—Evers, Schmidt and Gowdy falling victims to Pennock's fast curves. Shawkey gave two bases on balls in the five innings he pitched, and Pennock allowed only one. Pennock gave one base on balls, and made one wild pitch.

The new champions excelled the Athletics in hitting, but not in fielding. Boston made a total of sixteen runs in the four games, thirty-three hits for a total of fifty-five bases and four errors. The Athletics gathered only six runs, made twenty-two hits for a total of thirty-one bases, and had three errors.

Boston played one errorless game and the Athletics two. Today's contest was the first in the last four world's series, in which both teams played without error.

Evers made seven singles in the series. Gowdy had six hits, for a total of fourteen bases. Schmidt made five hits, and Baker made four hits in the series. Murphy three, Collins three, Schang two, McInnis two, and Strunk two.

ENTHUSIASM FURNISHES

THRILLING CLIMAX

Despite the rather mediocre play of the final game, the enthusiasm of the thousands of spectators, furnished a climax to the series. The game was put out, and championship honors were assured for the Braves. Cheering throngs piled out of the stands and bleachers, and rushed across the field to the Boston bench, and the Athletics were first to the dugout, and were shaking hands and congratulating their late opponents before the first of the fans reached the scene. Once the cheering force, the police had difficulty in holding in check the throngs of fans who were shouting and cheering, while a roar of applause went up that could be heard on Boston Common.

The Royal Rooters' brigade formed, and with the band and its Indian-dressed leaders at the head, marched around the field, cheering the empty benches. While but a few men were left, the men had conferred on the last bit of baseball strategy, and then joined the thousands paying homage to the Mayor, Curley, president Gaffney and Manager Stallings all made short speeches in response to the cheers.

Weather conditions were not so good as on the preceding days. The temperature had taken a sharp drop over night, and players and fans awoke to find the tang of autumn in the air, and conditions more suitable for football than baseball.

Because of the shortness of the series, the club owners and National Commission divide a smaller sum than in any world's series since 1910. The attendance of the series was 3,462, and the receipts, $62,652. Of this sum the players received $33,832.62; the club owners, $22,555.08, and the National Commission, $6,264.30.

The series was attended by 111,000 receipts, $226,739; players' share, $121,900.94; each club's share, $40,632.58, and the National Commission's proportion, $22,673. As winners, the Boston players received 60 per cent of $121,900.94, or $73,140.56, while the Athletics, as losers, got $48,760.38.

TWENTY-SIX PLAYERS

ELIGIBLE TO SHARE

Of the Boston club, twenty-six players are eligible to share in the prize money. Each man $2,513.10 should the money be divided equally. Of the Athletics, twenty-four players are entitled to divide the loser's end, which would give each Mackman $2,513.10. The players of neither club have, as yet, notified the National Commission how the money will be divided.

BOTH SIDES QUICKLY

RETIRED IN FIRST

Rudolph opened the game by grounding a strike on Eddie Murphy. The next was a ball. Murphy drove the third one straight at Evers, and was out at first. Oldring, who has been a poor performer with the bat in the series, went up to high foul to Gowdy, and walked to the bench. Collins slashed a single over second, and was left at first as Baker sent a high fly to Whitted in center field.

Boston's first turn at bat was short. Moran chopped a grounder to left, and was thrown out. Evers also offered Baker a grounder, and McInnis made a line pickup of the third baseman's low

The Mayor of Boston Presents a Gold Baseball to Stallings

Mayor James M. Curley, of Boston, forgot state affairs during the preliminaries of the third game of the world's series at Boston, and surprised the immense crowd at Fenway Park by making a presentation speech. The Mayor almost took Manager Stallings off his feet when he presented him with a solid gold baseball of the regulation size. The photo shows the Mayor holding the ball aloft, and the Braves are surrounding Stallings (arrow), their "Big Chief."

throw, the Braves' captain walking to the bench. Connolly fled out to Oldring.

NEITHER SIDE SCORES

IN SECOND INNING

In the second inning, McInnis tapped a slow roller, which Deal ran in on making a fine throw to first for the out. Walsh slammed a two-base hit against the fence, bounding the stand in the left field. Connolly seemed to misjudge the ball, as it struck him for him to have caught it. Barry was tossed out. Maranville to Schmidt, Walsh being unable to advance on the out.

The National League champions got a man on in their half of the second, after two were out, but he failed to advance. Whitted sent a hot liner that struck the catcher and was out. Evers ran in to get Schmidt punched a grounder to Shawkey, and was retired at first. Gowdy vaulted, and was given a base on balls. He was forced out at second by Maranville, Barry making the toss to Collins.

OLDRING GETS FIRST

IN FIRST INNING

Shawkey opened Philadelphia's third inning by striking out. Murphy went on a quick scoop and throw by Deal. Oldring got his first hit in the series, a clean single to center field. He tried to steal second and was out on Gowdy's fine throw to Maranville.

The Braves went out in one, two, three order in the third. Deal raised a base on balls, and was thrown out. Moran went out the same way.

ATHLETICS GET TWO

HITS IN FOURTH

The Athletics got two hits in the fourth inning. Collins opened with a grounder to Evers, and was easily tossed out. Baker smashed a hot drive at Schmidt, which he could not handle. Play was stopped while Schmidt regained his equilibrium, the face evidently having struck him in the face. McInnis rapped a single into left field. Baker made a great dash to third, and beat Connolly's throw.

On the throw-in, McInnis tried to reach Evers, but was out. Connolly to Deal to Evers. Rudolph was cheered as he struck out Walsh.

Boston scored its first run in its half of the fourth inning. Evers drew a base on balls, and went to second on Connolly's hit. Collins to McInnis. Collins intended trying for a double play, but momentarily juggled the ball, and caught Connolly only in the nick of time. Whitted shot a hard drive at Collins, and the ball was deflected off the fielder to permit Whitted to reach first and Evers third. Collins, in trying to field the ball, turned his ankle, and play was stopped for a few minutes. He limped to his position, and play was resumed. Then came the first real cheer of the Boston fans. Schmidt shoved a slow grounder at Barry, who threw the Boston first baseman out as Evers crossed the plate. Whitted moved to second on the out, and was left there when Shawkey threw out Gowdy. Up to this Athletics had made five hits without scoring, while Boston made a run out of a base on balls, an out and a short single and a second out. Barry's only hit in fifth inning.

Barry made his first and only hit of the series in opening the fifth inning. It was a single, which Maranville could not handle in time. Barry went to second on Schang's throw. Evers to Schmidt, and came home with the Athletics' only run on Shawkey's long two-base drive to left-center. Murphy was an easy out. Evers to Schmidt, Shawkey moving up to third. Oldring struck out.

The new world's champions won the title in their half of the fifth inning. Maranville went out, Barry to McInnis, and Baker threw out Deal. Rudolph was cheered as he singled into center field, and the rooters were brought to their feet when Moran drove a two-base hit to left field, on which Rudolph took third. The big crowd made much noise as Captain Evers stepped to the plate. Moran took a big lead off second, and then the Braves' captain, after two strikes, dropped a single into center field, which both Rudolph and Moran scored. The Royal Rooters' Band struck up a lively tune, and Connie Mack sent Pennock, Wyckoff and Bressler out to warm up. The crowd rooted for Connolly to help, but while he was at bat, Shawkey, by a quick throw, nipped Evers off first, and the side was out.

The Athletics appeared a bit dejected as they came off the field. There was a noticeable increase in the number of the Boston players as they took their positions in the sixth. With a two-run lead, Maranville bobbed Collins off a base hit by sprightly over back of second, picking up a sharp liner, and tossing out to warm up. The crowd rooted for Connolly to help, but while he was at bat, Shawkey, by a quick throw, nipped Evers off first, and the side was out.

The Easiest Team I
Have Faced All Year

BY DICK RUDOLPH.

BOSTON, October 13.—"The Athletics were the easiest team to beat that I have faced all year, or in any of the other seven years of my pitching experience. I had heard so much about their slugging powers, and I found that they could move live up to their reputation. I'd rather pitch against the Athletics than any other team in the National or American Leagues, and I know that my average would show for better."

"They swung at anything I fed them, whether it was low, high or wide. They showed no hitting judgment, and they were a cinch. I was nervous during the first three innings of the first game, but after I had pitched to the entire team just once I figured I had them measure."

TIGERS PRACTICE HARD FOR GAME WITH SPIDERS

Coach Bernier, of Hampden-Sidney, Planned "The Showing Made"

Hampden-Sidney, Va., October 13.—The student body was greatly pleased over the showing made by the Tigers against the heavy V. P. I. team Saturday. Four of the regulars—Pendleton, Huger, Oliver and the pitcher, Bernier, did not go on the trip. The team returned in good shape, and is ready for the coming season. The week in preparation for the game with the Spiders Saturday. Coach Bernier has a slight edge on his opponent, and in this department is expected that the latent possibilities of the team will be shown.

PREP SCHOOL FOOTBALL SEASON OPENS TO-DAY

Richmond Academy and John Marshall Eleven Will Battle at Broad Street Park at 3:30 o'clock.

With the first game this afternoon between Richmond Academy and the John Marshall High School, the prep school football league of Richmond will be started. All of the schools—Benedictine, McGuire, Richmond Academy and John Marshall—have developed strong teams, and an interesting season is expected.

The game this afternoon will begin promptly at 3:30 o'clock in Broad Street Park. In point of weight the Marshalls have a slight edge on their opponents. They are somewhat heavier, however, in other respects.

The warriors of the white and blue will go into the contest flustered with victory, and Manager Brumby is confident of fanning to their laurels. The Petersburg High school team, which before the onslaught of the public school lads by the score of 4 to 0, and on last Friday, the Ashland team were trimmed to the tune of 33 to 3.

"Braves Are Now Where They Rightfully Belong"

BY GEORGE STALLINGS.

BOSTON, MASS., October 13.—"I won't say anything now except that the result does not surprise me. I knew my boys could and would deliver. In my experience as a baseball manager I have never seen a team like the present Braves team. They are warriors, and the baseball public will hear more of them next year."

"The Braves to-night are where they rightfully belong—at the top of the baseball heap—and unless I miss my guess they will stay there for some time to come."

EXPERT MISSOURI TRAP
SHOT TO GIVE EXHIBITION

Homer Clark, One of the Best Target Shots in the World Will Help Entertain Visiting Bankers.

Homer Clark, of Missouri, one of the most expert target shots in the world, will give an exhibition at the West End Gun Club traps this afternoon. Several of the visiting bankers will attend the shoot and participate in the afternoon's sport. The club extends an invitation to the bankers and all lovers of trap-shooting to visit the grounds, which are reached by the Westhampton car line.

MORE AGGRESSIVENESS
COACH ELCOCK'S EDICT

Washington and Lee's Gridiron Warriors Engage in Rough Scrimmage in Preparation for Georgetown.

TEAM TO STOP AT JEFFERSON

Finances Do Not Permit Bringing of All Men Who Have Tried for Places to Richmond—Georgetown Eleven Spends Afternoon at Hard Practice.

LEXINGTON, VA., October 13.—The General gridiron squad engaged in the roughest scrimmage this afternoon that has been witnessed this season. Coach Elcock's edict that more aggressiveness should be shown was obeyed to the letter. No men were disabled, but many vicious tackles brought runners to the sod with an audible thud. Varsity bested the second team by a few touchdowns.

New formations to puzzle Georgetown will be given the squad to-morrow, while a scrimmage Thursday followed by a mass-meeting of the student body that night will wind up all preparations for Georgetown.

Four regulars—Bouring, Dingwall and Harrison—are fighting to retain their positions. Full strength will be realized for the first time this season.

Washington and Lee will send two complete squads to Richmond Saturday for her all-important game with Georgetown. The transportation arrangements for the General's squad were mapped out by Manager S. O. Laughlin, Jr., call for Elcock's warriors to leave Friday at noon over the Baltimore and Ohio for Lexington where they will change to the Chesapeake and Ohio train that gets into Richmond at 10 o'clock that evening.

In Richmond the General's headquarters will be at the Jefferson Hotel. Coach Elcock will announce the names of the men who are to go to Richmond on Thursday. There are about fifty players now, and it is going to be a hard task for Elcock to make up his mind just which men to put on the Washington and Lee squad. The team who have tried for places this year would take a hard trip to Richmond, but unfortunately, the finances do not permit of such an outlay.

Coach Elcock to-night announced the name of one of the men who will officiate in Saturday's game, Glass, of Leigh, one of the best officials in the college ranks. The umpire has not as yet been agreed on.

WASHINGTON CATCHER
WEDS NEW YORK GIRL

NEW YORK, October 13.—John P. Henry, catcher of the Washington American League team, and Miss Dorothy Lawrence Perry, of 605 West 140th Street, obtained a marriage license to-day and will be married at Miss Perry's home to-morrow.

Henry is twenty-six years of age and lives in Amherst, Mass. Miss Perry gave her age as thirty, and is the daughter of Charles G. Perry, of Hyannis, Mass.
